Budget Overview

Increased investment in roads, bridges and community facilities leads Ipswich City Council's 2017-2018 Budget.

The environment is another big winner with funding for conservation estates, supporting koala and platypus populations and promoting sustainability through popular community events.

A bumper line-up of arts, cultural and heritage programs will also be delivered.

Highlights include $1.2 million for improving roads in Bellbird Park, Gailes, Goodna and Redbank and $400,000 for building women's change rooms at Kippen Park.

Works will continue at Annabelle Park and Moodai Reserve in Bellbird Park with $800,000 for a new playground and shelters.

New security cameras at Augustine Heights and Gailes will become operational in the near future.
