Message from the Mayor

Ipswich is fast becoming one of Queensland's most desirable places to live, work, play and invest. By 2026 our population will grow from 150,000 to 300,000; providing Ipswich with an exciting future, creating new opportunities for economic and social vitality.

With this level of development there are many investment opportunities in Ipswich and I encourage you to work with our Office of Economic Development so that we can help your business to prosper in our city.

Regards

Cr Paul Pisasale
Mayor of the City of Ipswich

Location

Dynamic, historic Ipswich, just 45 minutes west of Queensland's capital, Brisbane, is the booming epicentre of unprecedented growth in South East Queensland. Ipswich's close proximity to Brisbane, the Gold and Sunshine Coasts also means residents can take advantage of capital city entertainment and some of the world's best beaches. Ipswich is ideally located on major domestic and international transport networks, and is just an hour from the air and sea ports.
