

Living in Harmony Directory

2008/09

INTRODUCTION

Ipswich City has a diverse population with residents from 115 countries, providing a strong cultural influence throughout the city.

“Who do you think we are?” encourages and enables community members to further celebrate, and value the uniqueness and benefits of cultural diversity.

The project has been developed in partnership with the University of Queensland (Ipswich Campus) and through engagement of a cross-representation of Indigenous and culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities.

The primary purpose of this Directory is to provide increased local community and business awareness of cultural diversities and protocols and address the issue of building pathways of understanding to facilitate greater access to community facilities and services by culturally and linguistically diverse individuals as a primary purpose.

‘This project is proudly supported by the Australian Government’s Living in Harmony program administered by the Department of Immigration and Citizenship. The program seeks to promote Australian values, especially mutual respect and acceptance, and it aims to engage the whole community and create opportunities to help people fully participate in Australian life. For more information on the Living in Harmony program, visit www.harmony.gov.au’

Message from the Mayor

Paul Pisasale

Ipswich is fortunate to have a significant strength in our culturally diverse community with residents from over 115 countries and over 80 different languages spoken. It is recognised as a city of great strengths drawn from the diversity and involvement of the people in our community.

Ipswich has a proud Aboriginal history that dates back some 40,000 years and is the traditional lands of a number of clan groups including Jagera, Yuggera and Ugarapul people. These groups are still an integral part of this community and country today.

In promoting pride in our diverse city, I am proud to present Council's "Who do you think we are?" Living in Harmony DVD and Directory.

Ipswich City Council is committed to fostering positive community relations between community members, community groups and Council as we work together towards a positive future, one of an inclusive, harmonious and cohesive community.

Mayor Paul Pisasale
City of Ipswich

Message from the Committee Chairperson

Charlie Pisasale

Council's "Who do you think we are?" project promotes the diversity of Ipswich and celebrates the pride we have in our community.

This Directory will provide contact details for services operational to support culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) community members. The DVD shares the personal experiences of CALD community members.

This project is funded under The Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs Living in Harmony program. It encourages local communities to play a positive role in engaging the whole community in promoting Australian values, mutual respect and mutual obligation for the betterment of all people.

Ipswich City Council is committed to engaging with and investing in our communities, to promote diversity, and, ultimately strengthening the sense of belonging residents have in Ipswich.

Our city is fulfilled and rewarded through our diversity.

Cr Charlie Pisasale
Chairperson
Arts, Community and Cultural Services Committee

DEMOGRAPHIC SNAPSHOT

The data taken from the 2006 census states a total of 140,181 Ipswich (local government area) residents of which 50.2% are female and 49.8% are male.

The indigenous population of Ipswich makes up 3.37% of the entire population, well above the national percentage of 2.29% (Figure 1).

The 5 – 14 years age bracket has the highest number of Indigenous Australians of all age groups (Figure 2).

The 2006 Census states that English is the only language spoken at home by 88.0% of Ipswich residents. The most common languages spoken at home other than English were Samoan 1.5%, Vietnamese 1.0%, Spanish 0.5%, German 0.3% and Dutch 0.2%.

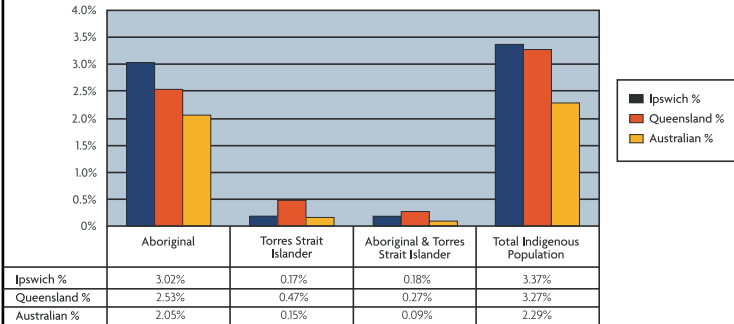

A total of 15.4% of Ipswich residents were born overseas (lower than the national figure of 22.2%). The number of Ipswich residents born overseas has risen since the 2001 census data by 14.84%.

The highest representation of overseas-born residents are from the United Kingdom, New Zealand, Samoa and Viet Nam (Figure 3).
