

Nominations Sought for Seniors' Forum

Ipswich City Council, in partnership with Sekisui House and the University of Queensland Ipswich Campus, are working together to host a Forum with the objectives to:

- Provide input which will contribute to the development of Council's Ageing Action Plan
- Provide a Forum for consultation, discussion and feedback with Seniors and Senior Service Providers in the Ipswich Community
- Identify the assets and opportunities which will support Ipswich's capacity to evolve as an age friendly City
- Provide recommendations for future funding submissions in relation to gaps in service provision
- Raise awareness and seek expressions of interest for membership nominations to a Council's Seniors' Consultative Group

It is also anticipated that participation in this Forum will assist in strengthening local community networks and sharing of information. Forum details are as follows:

- Cost: Free of charge for participants
- Date and Time: Monday 26 October 2009, 10.00 am - 2.00 pm
- Venue: Cunningham Room, Civic Hall, Corner Limestone and Nicholas Streets, Ipswich
- Catering: Morning tea and lunch will be provided. Special dietary needs must be notified in advance.
- Parking: If you require information on available long-term parking, please contact Cath Sweeney at Ipswich City Council, Community Development Branch on 07 3810 6655.
- Selection Process: As there are limited places, only 70 participants will be selected for the Forum from all nominations received.
- How to Apply: Please complete the nomination form provided.
- Closing Date: Nominations close on Friday 9 October 2009. Late nominations may not be accepted. For further information, please contact Cath Sweeney on 3810 6655 or email: CSweeney@ipswich.qld.gov.au.
