

Mayor Paul Pisasale's Christmas Message 2007

Christmas is a time of celebration with family and friends. A time to enjoy the spirit of Christmas.

Over the past few years many partners have come together as Ipswich has embarked on a journey that has seen rapid residential and industrial development while we have been able to retain our unique community spirit.

It's also been another wonderful year of getting things done.

The future will not just be about growth and new infrastructure, but will also be about embracing new residents to become part of the Ipswich family.

Our sense of community and well-being is one of the reasons so many people are choosing to make Ipswich their new home.

We must work at keeping this great feeling we have as a community – a city with a heart and soul.

The future looks bright for Ipswich.

Our journey continues to offer many exciting challenges and rewards for those who welcome change and rejuvenation.

Have a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Regards,

Mayor Paul Pisasale
City of Ipswich
