23 Replacement of s 30 (General compliance notice)

Section 30 –

omit, insert –

30 Compliance notice for contravention of local law or approval condition

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if an authorised person is satisfied on reasonable grounds that—
- (a) a person—
    - (i) is contravening a local law or a condition of an approval; or
    - (ii) has contravened a local law or a condition of an approval in circumstances that make it likely the contravention will continue or be repeated; and
  - (b) a matter relating to the contravention can be remedied; and
  - (c) it is appropriate to give the person an opportunity to remedy the matter.

Examples for paragraph (b) of matters relating to a contravention that can be remedied—

- If the contravention relates to a person's failure to take action that is required under a local law or a condition of an approval, then the matter can be remedied by the person taking that action.
  - If the contravention relates to a person taking action that is prohibited under a local law or a condition of an approval, then the matter can be remedied by the person stopping that action.
- (2) The authorised person may give a written notice (a compliance notice) to the person (the recipient) requiring the person to remedy the contravention.<sup>2</sup>
- (3) The compliance notice must state the following—
- (a) the particular provision of the local law or condition of an approval the authorised person believes is being, or has been, contravened; and
  - (b) briefly, how it is believed the provision of the local law or condition of an approval is being, or has been, contravened; and
  - (c) the time by which the recipient must remedy the contravention; and
  - (d) that it is an offence to fail to comply with the compliance notice; and
  - (e) the maximum penalty for failing to comply with the compliance notice.

<sup>2</sup> Where a compliance notice is given to the owner of a property and requires action to be taken in relation to that property, then it will constitute a remedial notice under the Act, section 138AA.

- (4) The time under subsection (3)(c) must be reasonable having regard to—
- (a) the action required to remedy the contravention; and
  - (b) the risk to public health and safety and the risk of damage to property or loss of amenity posed by the contravention; and
  - (c) how long the recipient has been aware of the contravention.
- (5) The compliance notice may also state the reasonable steps the authorised person considers necessary to remedy the contravention or avoid further contravention.

Examples of reasonable steps to avoid further contravention—

- The repetition of a specified action at stated intervals for a certain period.
  - Stopping taking an action that is prohibited by a local law or condition of an approval.
- (6) The compliance notice must include, or be accompanied by, an information notice.
- (7) The recipient must comply with the compliance notice.

Maximum penalty for subsection (7)—50 penalty units.

24 Insertion of new s 30A

After section 30 –

insert –

30A Stop orders

- (1) An authorised person may give a relevant person an order to immediately stop an activity if the authorised person believes that continuation of the activity poses—
  - (a) an urgent and serious threat to public health or safety; or
  - (b) an urgent and serious risk of property damage or loss of amenity.

- (2) An order under this section –
  - (a) may be given orally or in writing; and
  - (b) operates until the earliest of the following happens –
    - (i) the expiry of the period, of no more than 3 days, specified by the authorised person when the order is given;
    - (ii) the local government immediately suspends the approval for the activity under section 10A.

- (3) An authorised person must confirm an oral order in writing by the next business day following the giving of the order.

- (4) A person who receives an order under this section must comply with the order.

Maximum penalty for subsection (4) – 50 penalty units.

(5) This section does not affect the local government’s powers under another law.

(6) In this section—

relevant person means the approval holder for the activity or an employee or agent of the approval holder currently conducting the activity.
