8.0 GRIEVANCE AND DISPUTE SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES

It is agreed that it is in the interest of all parties to manage resolution of any conflict by means which do not disrupt the operations of the workplace. In the event of any workplace grievance and/or disagreement between the parties as to the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement, the following procedure will be followed.

This Agreement recognises that employees' grievances should be resolved speedily, effectively and informally between the employee and supervisor where possible and without the need for recourse to industrial action.

The following procedure will apply for the resolution of any dispute:

1. The employee is to notify (in writing or otherwise) the Supervisor/Section Manager of the nature of the grievance and the remedy being sought. If, however, the dispute relates to, or directly involves the employee's Supervisor/Section Manager, then the matter shall be referred directly to the next level of management.
2. A meeting between the employee and the Supervisor is to be held as soon as practicable to discuss the matter. The meeting should be held within 48 hours from next availability.
3. If the matter is not resolved at this meeting, the employee may request the Supervisor to refer the matter to the Branch Manager. Further discussions involving all parties are to be held again within 48 hours, if practicable.
4. If the matter is not resolved at this meeting, the employee may request the Supervisor to refer the matter to the General Manager. Further discussions involving all parties are to be held again within 48 hours, if practicable.

Any arbitrated decision will be binding on all parties.

This procedure does not preclude either party from raising the issue to a higher stage at any time having regard to the issue involved.

Failure to provide this information may result in the non-payment of Leave for that absence.

In cases where an employee's record of attendance at work deteriorates to a point where it can be deemed to be unsatisfactory, Council may introduce a system whereby the employee will be required to produce satisfactory evidence, which may include a doctor's certificate before payment of any sick / carers leave is made.
