Film Ipswich

Ipswich – a city of breathtaking landscapes, blazing sunsets, intriguing features and a welcoming community. The ideal location to service your filming needs.

Located only 40km from Brisbane and covering more than 1,000kms, Ipswich offers a diverse range of film-friendly locations - from urban centres to rural landscapes. Represented by a supportive local government and spirited community, we can help you find the location you are searching for.

Ipswich City Council prides itself on supporting the local film industry. We are a city that is committed to promoting and facilitating greater access to our region's locations.

In addition to Ipswich's stunning scenery and attention-grabbing architecture, the city also has a variety of accommodation and catering providers, a mature supply chain and skilled workers to ensure that all filming comes off without a hitch.

Not only will you receive support from the Ipswich City Council, we also work with neighbouring local government authorities to showcase our region to both domestic and international large scale productions.

The Ipswich City Council is a member of the Screen Queensland Film Friendly Pathway Programme, ensuring a harmonious partnership between council, State approval parties, film producers/location scouts and other industry professionals.

Our free permit application process and policies are designed to assist and encourage commercial filming activity.
